Transition Times Vol. IV | June 22, 2016

Transition Times

The need to know now for our incoming TCNJ students! Read below for information and upcoming deadlines over the next two weeks.

Preregistration Update

Although it may be difficult, try to sit back and relax! Here is what's going on behind the scenes:

Now - End of June: Departments are finishing the preregistration of the fall classes that your specific major requires. Our Liberal Learning Office is also finalizing all of the FSP assignments.

Week of July 4: Once we receive and load the AP Scores, faculty and staff will make changes to schedules as needed.

Week of July 11: You'll receive an email that your Fall 2016 schedule has been finalized.

Many of you have peeked at your schedules in PAWS already, but please keep in mind that the preregistration of 1,450+ first year students is a multi-step process and some things may still change between now and when your schedule is finalized.

Fun Fact

Lake Sylva provides more than just a pretty view for residents of Centennial, ABE and Norsworthy Halls. This spring it was the location of the Cardboard Boat Regatta, an annual tradition where teams of two build and race boats made entirely out of cardboard!

Click here to watch clips of this year's Regatta! The video includes other Spring 2016 highlights, including Funival (another annual tradition) and Bill Clinton's visit to campus.

All In The Family

Your parent or guardian can also opt-in to receive the Transition Times!
